

2021 POST SHOW REPORT

The 2021 MRO Asia-Pacific conference and showcase was presented virtually and connected 2,000+ registered attendees with one another. Attendees traded long flights, short hops and metro rides for the comfort of their own homes and offices, and came together for a week of virtual networking, including video meetings, as well as live and on-demand content. The virtual event encompassed the entire aviation maintenance industry and attendees heard from operators and their service providers as they came together for critical conversations on recovery and ramp up.

“MRO Asia-Pacific is a one stop shop for knowing everything about Aviation in the Asia-Pacific region.”
